Guidelines for Submitting Art and Poetry

Thanks for participating in "Project In-Sight 2013"

To submit your art and poetry, simply deliver it to your therapist with this form, or hand it to the front desk after May 15, 2013. Please pick up your works in early August.

Participants: All persons who receive services with agencies in the Reston and Chantilly Northwest Center buildings, and their families are invited to submit art and poetry. Agencies' staff members are also welcome to participate.

Content: Project In-Sight is happy to display almost all subject matter. Please understand that offensive or disturbing works will not be accepted.

Poetry: Please type or print clearly in writing that is not too small.

Medium: Your art can be any medium that can be mounted on the wall; that is, light-weight and relatively flat.
